

Due to the low interest rates over the past 2years, I am bomb-barded with banks trying to solicit re-finiancing. Banks have been the worst offenders of sales calls to my home and I am absolutely against having them removed from the do not call list!
I appreciate your consideration of my concerns.